More info about this race:

Frances Jackson is running in North Carolina HD-45, one of the most flippable NC house districts, in a year where we can flip the whole legislature in addition to capturing a US Senate seat for Joe Cunningham and winning NC's 15 electoral college votes for Joe Biden and Kamala Harris. In the NC House, Democrats need a net gain of five seats to break even and six seats to take the majority.

About Frances:

Dr. Frances "Vinell" Jackson, Ph.D., candidate for North Carolina House, District 45. She is a long-time resident of Cumberland County and has lived in Hope Mills, North Carolina for over 25 years. Frances was born in Moore County and grew up in Harnett & Lee Counties.

Her education, professional experience, community service, and values make her the best candidate to represent the citizens of NC District 45. Frances was born, raised, and received her initial education in Cumberland County. She attended North Carolina A&T State University and earned a Bachelor of Science in Transportation and Economics (Aggie Pride!). Frances attended Fayetteville State University and earned a Master of Arts in Political Science. Most recently, she earned a Ph.D. from Walden University in Public Policy and Administration.

Dr. Jackson's platform is focused on people, jobs, education, and the environment. People deserve healthcare and quality of life. She is committed to bringing new jobs to District 45. She is supportive of a pay increase for teachers and support staff and in funding education at levels to best prepare children for success. She is committed to protecting our environment and maintaining clean air and water for our citizens.

Dr. Jackson has an extensive career in state and local government. After college, she served 11 years as a transportation and community planner at the Cumberland County planning department. Next, she served as a zoning administrator and Transportation Director in Hoke County. Dr. Jackson then served as a transit analyst for the City of Fayetteville. She taught High School civics and economics at Hoke County High School. Most recently she served as a Cumberland County Magistrate. Frances has served on several local boards including the Hope Mills Zoning Commission, the Cumberland County ABC Board, and several scholarship committees.
